SEC. 23. Cost of re-assessment how Paid—If the board of trustees shall confirm the former appraisal, or shall increase the exemption allowed the judgment debtor, the levy shall stand only upon the excess remaining, and the judgment creditors shall pay all costs of the re-allotment. If they reduce the amount allowed the judgment debtor, the cost shall follow the execution and the levy shall cover the excess then remaining

SEC 24 How Vacated.—Any appraisal or allotment by the trustees of a township may be set aside, on application of any party interested, for fraud, complicity or other irregularity. The proceedings shall be upon petition, as in other special proceedings, and the applicant shall give bond to the opposing party for costs and damages.

SEC. 25. Fees.—The following fees and no other shall be charged in this proceeding: Each appraiser for laying off homestead or personal property exemptions, or both, one dollar; officer for summoning and qualifying appraisers and delivering returns to clerk, one dollar, clerk of Superior Court, for filing return and entering minute on execution docket, 25 cents; for making transcript for township clerk when required to do so, 50 cents; township clerk for summoning trustees, 50 cents; township clerk for transmitting return, 25 cents.

Dishonored Faith.

The Baltimore Sun gives us the following piece of information, which is suggestive:

The appointment of Thomas L. Tullock as Appointment Clerk of the Treasury is proving a severe blow to all the clerks who failed to subscribe to the campaign fund of the Republican party. It seems that before he became Department Clerk he was Secretary of the Congressional Republican Committee, and in that capacity had appealed to the clerks to give according to their means for the support of the Radical ticket. Many of the clerks refused, and Tullock kept a record of all such cases for future action. Now, it is said, he is contriving to have all those clerks removed, though many of them are sound Republicans, and only had the rashness to refuse to contribute what they could not well afford. Not only has Tullock done this, but he has stretched his blighting arm over all the members of the Johnson Department Club and all the Conservative Democratic organizations who hold positions in the Treasury. The sweeping out has been pretty thorough and complete already. It is further said that in a short time hence a circular will be sent to all the clerks asking for a confession of their political creeds prior to future removals

Gen. Grant, before his inauguration and after it, says the Courier-Journal, proclaimed upon many occasions that no official would be removed on account of his political opinions. He declared that honesty and capability should be made the sole test of fitness for public place. He said this to his political friends as freely as to his political opponents. He took peculiar pride in saying it. He said it oftener and more emphatically than any predecessor of his ever did. And, among other reasons for the policy he thus announced, he declared that he himself was not a partisan politician, and that he was not indebted to partisan politicians for his election. Yet the partisan exhibition that he makes of himself is more disgusting than any ever made by any other President. He not only promulgates orders thro' which he declares that no man shall be employed even as day-laborers in any department of the Government, but, as appears from the paragraph quoted above, he orders or permits the turning out of all clerks who did not contribute money from their poor salaries for the promotion of his election. The clerks, it is well known, have had the hardest kind of a struggle for several years to subsist themselves and their families upon the pitifully small stipends they have received, and yet, by the authority or under the auspices of the great foe of partisan proscription, they are swept remorselessly from their places if they hesitated to aggravate the cruel hardships of their wives and children by contributing "black mail" on account of the Presidential election. The English language is a strong language, but hardly strong enough to do justice to such a case as this.

A BIGAMIST IN KENTUCKY.—The Lexington, Ky., Gazette gives the following account of a much married man:

This individual, who at one time was well known in this city, where he passed himself off as a preacher and of feeble health, and afterwards kept a livery stable on Short street, has appeared in a new role. A gentleman from Illinois came to town last week and inquired for the handsome farm of some seven or eight hundred acres belonging to James Bennett, Esq., lying on the Nicholasville pike. He was told by the clerk of the Phœnix Hotel that he knew of no such man, but referred him to Mr. Bullock, the sheriff of Fayette county, who was probably familiar with most of the land owners of the county. It is hardly necessary to say that James Bennett's farm was a myth, and that the gentleman who had come in search of it and of D. Martin, the overseer residing on the place, was most grossly imposed upon. He brought a letter from Bennett to the fictitious Martin, telling him to deliver to Mr. —— (the bearer) any number of fine cattle and horses, which he had sold to different parties in Illinois. The supposition is that Bennett had another matrimonial scheme on hand, and took this means of forwarding it. He came to the town in Illinois near which Mr. —— resides, and pretended to be taken very ill with the heart disease. Mr. —— heard that a stranger was at the hotel, and not expected to live, and called to see him; and finally took him to his house, where he was carefully nursed. Mr. —— also wrote a will for him, in which he enumerated land and other property valued at about $180,000. Bennett got better, but not well enough to come to Kentucky after the stock he had sold, so he got Mr. —— to come in his stead, with the result indicated.

It is believed that Bennett has been married some fifteen or twenty times. He married once in this city, and was then a widower. He has served at least one term in the penitentiary, and if he gets his deserts now he will be treated to the luxury of a halter. He is known in Illinois as Bennett; about Bowling Green, in this State, as Barnett. He has also figured in Mississippi and Arkansas as Barrett, and in Virginia by still another alias. He is described as a tall, fine-looking man, with a long, flowing beard, and has the gentle, subdued manners that are so fascinating to the fair sex. He must be a bold scoundrel to play the same game so repeatedly, but it seems that he has calculated pretty well on the credulity of women, and has shown a wonderful talent at deceiving them. The most extraordinary part of his success lies in his never having married any really poor girl, but generally those who had more or less money. This was the bait, and he rarely failed; or, how could he have managed to marry a score of wives, while many a poor wretch of a bachelor has never succeeded in imposing himself on one in a long life? Bennett, Barrett, or Barnett, or whoever he is, must be one of those killing gentlemen so taking with the fair sex whom we occasionally read of, but whom we confess never to have met. We should like to have his photograph and see what manner of man he is. Mr. ——, of Illinois, telegraphed for his arrest, and left the same day in hot pursuit.

STATE NEWS.

SOUTHERN HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—Gen. D. H. Hill, of Charlotte, has been appointed Vice-President for North Carolina of the Southern Historical Society. A good selection.

STATE AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.—The Executive Committee of the N. C. State Agricultural Association, have appointed a Committee to solicit funds for the purpose of enclosing and otherwise preparing the ground near the city, in order that a first class State Fair may be held some time in October next.

The Committee above alluded to, consists of the following gentlemen: Messrs. B. P. Williamson, W. G. Upchurch, H. J. Menninger, R. W. Best, W. H. Jones, A. T. Mial and P. Dunn.

All of these are gentlemen of enterprise and energy, and we hope that large success will attend all their efforts. Only show a lack of energy in our people do not respond to calls made upon them to assist in furthering this important work, but will exhibit a disgraceful apathy to the best interest of the State.—Ral. Sentinel.

The train, last evening, brought to our city a large number of citizens of different localities in the State, to participate in the consolidation meeting to-day. Among them we notice men of high character and standing, who doubtless have come with honest intentions to subserve the best interests of the State; others are seekers of pleasure. We sincerely hope all may have their fondest anticipations realized.

The towns and cities represented by those at the Gaston House, are the following: Raleigh, Salisbury, Goldsboro, Charlotte, Boon Hill, Greensboro, Snow Hill, Morganton, Winston, Statesville, Graham, Wilmington, Beaufort, Mebaneville, Hillsboro, Haw River, Melrose and Lincolnton.

Messrs. Turner, of the Sentinel, Yates, of the Charlotte Democrat, Waring, of the Charlotte Times, Chapin, of the Greensboro Topic, and Burton, of the Roanoke News, are among the visitors attendant upon the meeting.

Wil. Jour. of Com.

Gov. Holden has issued a proclamation offering a reward of four hundred dollars, for the arrest of each person engaged in the murder of Sheriff Colgrove, of Jones County.

Goldsboro Messenger.

VEGETABLES.—A special train, consisting of eight car loads of vegetables, passed over the W. & W. R. R., Sunday afternoon. The vegetables were from South Carolina, and were intended for the Northern market.

Wil. Star.

It should be a source of gratification to our citizens to witness the many improvements going on in our city. In addition to those recently gone up, there are three large brick store houses and as many ware houses now in process of erection. In fact, there are evidences of enterprise and improvement in every part of our place. It speaks well for our men of means, and for the future of Salisbury. Our location is most favorable and it is destined to make itself felt very soon, if our citizens will but unite their energies and make use of the opportunities they possess. Cheer up the good work.—Salisbury Examiner.

He said his own views were in favor of such a policy, but that he thought in all cases the people of a country to be annexed should first show themselves anxious for union with us, and that then it would be a subject for the consideration of our Government.

The State Department is still without advices regarding Minister McMahon.

LONDON, June 1.—Minister Motley in replying to the address of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce was very pacific, and deprecated hostilities between the two countries as averse to the happiness of the world, the progress of civilization and the best hopes of humanity. Mr. Motley made a strong point of the blood alliance between the United States and England. Mr. Motley concluded, "My most strenuous efforts shall be devoted to the further good understanding on the basis of enduring friendship and kindly relations in accordance with the great principles of justice and honor which are the immutable and only safe and unerring guides in the conduct of nations."

Nearly all the journals have articles to day on the presentation address to Mr. Motley, and discuss the probable future relations between Great Britain and the United States. The Times after contrasting Sumner's speech in the Senate with Mr. Motley's language, hopes that the pacific tendency of the latter is not a tribute to appearances, but a real, practical indication of the intention of his government. Setting aside all controversy with Great Britain, the Times offers Mr. Motley a hearty welcome. The Times is assured that both governments and people of the two nations will reciprocate his friendly expressions.

Our Relations With England—Reported Policy of President Grant.

The rumors current here in regard to our relations with England to the effect that President Grant is engaged in framing a more energetic foreign policy are considered by the best informed persons as merely a national. It is true that General Butler advises a war policy and that Mr. Sumner is in favor of reopening negotiations with England; but President Grant, notwithstanding all the obstacles which are thrown in his way by intriguing politicians, as well as by threats of Senatorial interference and dictation, has taken the management of this difficult question into his own hands. In doing so he feels that he is carrying out the will of the people and that his course will be approved by them.

It is ascertained from the most trustworthy sources that the President considers that England established a precedent during the late war which cannot be regarded otherwise than exceedingly favorable to the United States. It is therefore useless to ask England to retrace her steps so long as she considers herself in the right, and with nothing to fear from the United States in case she should go to war with any other Power. The President believes that these are matters which concern England rather than the United States, but that on the other hand, if England sees that she is wrong, and that the same neutrality principles she applied to the United States would prove very disastrous if applied to herself in some future emergency, then it is for her to open again the so-called Alabama matter and make propositions for new negotiations. In this condition the question stands for the present, and the President sees no necessity whatever just now, for pursuing a more energetic foreign policy in reference to England.

In connection with this subject it has become known that several cable despatches were recently sent to leading officials in England by Englishmen here, and the answers thereto say that the bitter feeling which at first existed after the receipt of Mr. Sumner's speech is beginning to disappear, and it is anticipated here in official circles that the violent excitement which has existed in England will soon subside.

The Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia is in session at Fredericksburg. The churches are reported in a better condition than previous to the war. Bishop Johns, in his address, deprecates in the strongest terms the Ritualistic tendencies of many members of the church, and appealed to his brethren to aid in basis of the book of Common Prayer. The Bishop confirmed 540 persons during the year.

Business men and capitalists would find it to their advantage to call at the office of Caldwell & Brenizer, and examine the Perpetual Insurance plan of the Liverpool & London & Globe Fire Insurance Company. Assets $17,000,000. May 19 1m

A Paris correspondent thus describes the Diva's last ovation: Patti received last night another of those rapturous ovations to which she must be by this time pretty well accustomed, and for which she is indebted quite as much to her pretty, girlish person, and her pretty, coquettish ways, as to her singing. Her voice, though sweet, clear, brilliant, and capable both of much force and much pathos, lack, volume, and when she comes out with a fortissimo passage is rather apt to approach the confines of a scream. Otherwise, and when not forced to undue efforts by the absolutely exaggerated loudness of modern operatic orchestration, nothing can be more pellucid, sparkling and joyous than her vocalization. She reminds one of the story of the Princess in the fairy tale, who could not open her mouth without pearls or diamonds falling out of her mouth. And she seems to be so happy in singing, seems to sing so purely for her own gratification, and throws out her showers of shining notes with such ease and rapidity, that she fairly carries her audience along with her. She has all the capricious petulance of a spoiled child: smiles, pouts, and comes out with arch little laughs as she comes forward courtesying her thanks, and gathering up the loads of boquets that are so constantly showered upon her. It is very pretty to see the little fairy-like figure opening her slight arms to receive a vast boquet as it flies toward her, dodging another that threatens to fall on her nose, tucking up the great masses of flowers under her arms, as well as within them, her black eyes and pearly teeth giving lustre to her smiles, and almost staggering under her flowery load as she courtesies herself backward off the stage. Half a dozen pairs of arms are needed on most occasions to help her carry off the load of flowers. Yesterday she sported with the charming pink and white costume which she wears in the banquet scene of the first act of "Traviata," some of the magnificent diamonds given her in St. Petersburg. The ear rings presented to her by one of the clubs cost six thousand guineas; the bracelet presented by another club cost fifteen hundred pounds, while the brooch given to her by the Czar consists of stones so magnificent and of such extraordinary purity that jewelers state them to be inestimable.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Science Advances.

As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, Mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, &c., was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinine was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSTETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health.

For many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation, and beneficient effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach of a morbid nature, and we are free to say that it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation, after years of careful study and sifting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted.

A WOMAN'S DREAMS.—She sat alone in the moonlight, her beautiful cheek resting upon her hand so white and dimpled. You could tell, as you looked at her, that her thoughts were far away, and that she was thinking of something beautiful. Her eyes were wistful; her lips were softly pressed together; the dimples in her cheeks had died out, and only the dimple in her chin remained—that little rosy cleft, the impress of love's finger. She was less glowing than at times, but none the less lovely. I thought to myself, as I looked at her, that she was nearer Heaven than we coarser mortals, and I longed to know whither her pure heart turned itself. I approached her; she did not hear me. I spoke; she did not answer. I touched her softly on the arm; she looked up and smiled a far-away smile, such as an angel might have given. "You are thinking very intently," I said. She answered "Yes," in a subdued tone of voice, as though that which was on her mind was too holy for discussion. But I persisted. "Will you tell me what your thoughts were?" I asked. She shook her head. "You could not understand," she said. "I could try," I said, humbly; "I am coarse and rude, I know, but I could strive to comprehend." She smiled sweetly, but still with that far-away look in her dark eyes. "No, not coarse," she said, "but you are a man. It is so different with men; were you a woman you would understand at once. Now, perhaps, you may smile, may laugh at me. "Believe me, no," I whispered; "I adore the beautiful, the true, the pure. Let me know your sweet thoughts." She gave me her hand. "I will tell you," I have thought of nothing else all day. Last night I lay awake thinking of it. I am sure I must be right; but if I am wrong, oh! if I am wrong, Edgar, I tremble to think of it." "You cannot be wrong," I said. She gave me her other hand "You think not?" she said; "ah! but you cannot be so good a judge as a woman. I think—I believe——" "Yes, yes," I whispered, bending nearer; "yes, Angeline." "I am almost sure," she said, in accents softer than the ripple of falling water, "almost sure, Edgar, that the blue fringe will look better on my new walking suit than purple velvet. Don't you think so?"—The Eldorado.

A CHAMPAGNE SONG.

Faster, faster, friend of mine!
Pour it not like vulgar wine;
'Tis a monarch—treat it so.
Let it frothing, foaming, flow
To the brim, o'er the brim—
Let the king his glories shew!

See it swell, and hiss, and froth
Like a maelstrom mad with wrath,
Roaring, raging, everywhere!
See uprise those tiny bubbles.
So our troubles, all our troubles,
Thus shall melt away in air.

Like a lion in its den
Startled by the tribe of men,
Forth it foaming, flashing flies;
And each bubble, ere it dies,
Sparkles, sparkles, sparkles, sparkles,
Sparkles like a woman's eyes.

Ah! 'tis still! Its rage is spent
From mere want of aliment;
And its breath of life seems fled:
Fling the hungry wretch some bread.
Bread from thee! take bread from thee!
Sooner were the monarch dead.

Up he springs, and swells his tides
As to burst the glass sides.
Bread to him who wears a crown!
Bread, the food of every clown!
Now, my friend, the bottle end;
Quaff the foaming monarch down.

CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF FORTY PER CENT.

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

PRUDENCE AND CAUTION

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed better to hold a surplus beyond the reserve while the company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF ITS SUCCESS.

EXCELSIOR!—I have recently added to my already great collection of

THE BEST CAMERAS

IN THE WORLD.

The maker of one, J. H. Dallmeyer, of London, received a gold and silver medal at the Paris Exposition. The other is a Panoramic Solar Camera, made by the celebrated optician, Herman Roettger, of Germany. The best judges pronounce this the best instrument in the world. With the

BEST INSTRUMENTS,

The best of light and the best materials, I guarantee Pictures to surpass anything in the State, and to EQUAL ANY IN THE WORLD.

Either from Ambrotype, Oval, Locket, or from life. I am prepared to make any size picture as good, if not better than the original from which I agree to fail in the size. Small ones as well.

In making this announcement I would return my most sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon me in the past, and pledge my best efforts in producing GOOD PICTURES in the future. The best judges and most pleased, and speak most flatteringly, but the pictures will speak well for themselves. Come all and see.

Those wishing fine Pictures will confer a great favor by paying their bills at once, and save annoyance, if not cost.

THE BALTIMORE

PARLOR HEATERS,

COOKING STOVES,

COOKING RANGES,

HOT-AIR FURNACES, &c.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

AND GAS BURNERS,

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to suit in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are heliminate made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to heat from 30 to 70 hours with one filling.

Thanking for our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.

NOTICE.—

We hereby notify the public that, from and after this date, we employ no agents for the sale of Gregory's Dyspeptic Mixture.

Neither are there any interested parties with us. We are the inventors, sole proprietors, and only manufacturers of the GENUINE ARTICLE, and our individual signatures accompany each bottle—and all orders and remittances must be made to Drs. W. W. & R. K. GREGORY, at Charlotte, N. C.

In assuming the entire charge of this invaluable remedy, we present it to you in a new dress, and have reduced the price to $1 50 per bottle, to bring it within the reach of all. In the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle will be seen the certificates of the most distinguished physicians, judges and divines, in the State, and we only ask for it a trial, that dyspeptics may be convinced of its curative virtues.

We desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of snuff generally, that since the war, certain tobacco manufaaturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks, so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers by them. It will be found upon comparison that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of the many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast), or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.
